

A Caribbean passport offers security, global mobility, and in some cases the ability to live and work in the United Kingdom, Europe, and the United States. The Caribbean is a strategic choice that offers high net worth individual's key financial advantages, including relief from global taxation. As world economies undergo massive changes, both good and bad, there has never been a better time to secure a second citizenship that can protect your wealth and family from financial and political turmoil.

The five main Caribbean countries offering Citizenship by Investment programs are St. Kitts & Nevis, Dominica, Grenada, St. Lucia, and Antigua & Barbuda.

1

Speed

These programs offer a quick a simple route to citizenship. In most cases, applications are approved with three to four months following the date of submission, which is much quicker than most other citizenship programs which can usually take around 6-12 months.

2

Cost

St Lucia and Dominica work out to be the lowest cost option for single applicants at just under $140,000, including all costs. Antigua is a popular route for families which works out at approximately $180,000 for families of four, depending on ages.

3

Visa Free Travel

The list of visa free countries that you can travel to using these passports is ever increasing. Caribbean passport holders can freely travel to 150+ countries worldwide including the Schengen territories, Hong Kong, China, Russia, the United Kingdom, Singapore, and they can easily obtain long-term US and Canada visas.

4

No Requirement to Reside

Most of the countries have no minimum stay requirements. Antigua requires a minimum stay of 5 days in 5 years, which can be simply achieved by taking a short holiday during your first five years and enjoying the countries beautiful beaches and culture.

5

Lifestyle Property

It is possible to gain citizenship through either a donation to the government fund or by investing in a government approved real estate project. In most cases these are shares in hotels or condos in a touristic resort. Many options come with a few weeks' usage for the owner each year, which is ideal for clients who are looking to also enjoy some time in the country they have invested in.

6

Full Family

Every jurisdiction allows the main applicant to include their spouse, dependent children, and dependent parents. Dependent children can be included up to the age of 30 years old in Dominica, Grenada and St Kitts which is ideal for families with older children, who would not be accepted in other countries.

7

Access to USA

Because Grenada holds a visa treaty with the USA, Grenadian passport holders therefore have the right to apply for the E2 visa which enables one to live, work and study in the USA. To apply for an E2 visa, applicants need to invest into a US business which they own at least a 50% share of. There is no official minimum investment amount stipulated, however it is advisable to invest approximately $150,000+ to ensure an application is successful. The process will take roughly 3 months and applicants will be issued with a 5-year residency visa with unlimited renewals.
